CALL TO WORSHIP Isaiah 49:6-7

One: Listen to me, O Coastlands;
      pay attention, you people from far away!

All: God called us before we were born;
      God named us while in our mother's womb.

One: God made our mouths like sharp swords;
      in the shadow of God's hand, we were hidden.

All: God made us a polished arrow;
      in God's quiver, we were hidden away.

One: I will give you as a light to the nations, that my salvation may reach to the end of the earth.

All: Kings shall see and stand up;
      princes shall prostrate themselves,
      because of God, who is faithful;
      the Holy One has chosen you.

CALL TO CONFESSiON

One: The God of Light and Life reminds us of what we were meant to do and be. This is the time to learn and remember. Let us pray together.

PRAYER OF CONFESSiON

All: Holy God, sometimes we remain in the dark, beset as we are by fear, anxiety, brutality, violence, loss — and a dozen alienations that we cannot manage.

We want to be people of your light. So we pray for the light of your glorious presence. We pray for the light of your wondrous grace as we exhaust our coping capacity; we pray for your gift of newness that will override our weariness; we pray that we may see and know and hear and trust in your good rule.

Give us energy, courage, and freedom to become your light through the demands of this day.
Amen.

Pause for quiet reflection

WORDS OF GRACE

One: God called to us, even before we were born. God calls us still.

All: There is nothing we can do and nothing that can be done to us that will ever separate us from God's love.

One: Let us always remember God's good news:

All: In Jesus our Christ, we are forgiven, we are loved, we are being made whole.

One: Thanks be to God.

All: Amen

PASSING OF THE PEACE OF CHRIST

One: The peace of Christ be with you all.

A: And also with you!

Share a sign of God's peace: a smile, a wave, an elbow bump, a handshake, a hug. Let us fill this space with love.

SUNG RESPONSE                    “Emmanuel”

A: Emmanuel, Emmanuel,
his name is called Emmanuel.
God with us, revealed in us,
his name is called Emmanuel.

3 Je-sus calls us from the wor-ship of the trea-sures we a - dore,
4 In our joys and in our sor-rows, days of toil and hours of ease,
5 Je-sus calls us! By your mer-cies, Sav-ior, may we hear your call,

Day by day that voice still calls us, say - ing, “Chris-tian, fol - low me.”
Turned from home and toil and kin-dred, leav - ing all for Je - sus' sake.
From each i - dol that would keep us, say - ing, “Chris-tian, love me more.”
Je - sus calls, in cares and plea-sures, “Chris-tian, love me more than these.”
Give our hearts to your o - be-dience, serve and love you best of all.

All That We Are

January 18, 2026

Second Sunday after Epiphany

GREEN

John 1:29-42

When the Spirit descended from heaven like a dove and remained on Jesus at his moment of baptism, John saw it. He was in the Jordan River baptizing his cousin, Jesus. He witnessed that holy, amazing moment. He knew Jesus was the one to follow — not him — and so, he told his two followers just that.

“Look, there’s the Lamb of God. That’s who you want to follow,” said John. So off they went after Jesus. Jesus, sensing he was being followed, turned and asked them bluntly, “What are you looking for?” To which they replied, “Where are you staying?”

What kind of question was that? So much meaning gets lost in translation as our modern ears hear this as a question of actual location or a curiosity about how one is living. But the former followers of John who wanted to be in the Jesus club, were not wanting to know if Jesus was in a hip neighborhood or residing in a swanky dwelling. Their question we discover is much deeper for the Greek word we translate into “staying” should read “abide.”

The word “abide” is an important one in John’s Gospel. It is used 10 times in the first 10 verses in John 15. The biblical definition for abide means “to be held or kept” or “to remain.” So, what the soon-to-be followers of Jesus wanted to know was who was holding this prophetic teacher. Who was “keeping” Jesus — keeping him safe, secure, steadfast?

Jesus’ reply “come and see” is also one that goes deeper than an invitation to tour his home and have a cup of tea. Jesus’ “come and see” is an invitation to an adventure that unfolds throughout the entire Gospel of John.

Come and see how I abide in God. Come and see the importance of abiding in me as I abide in you. Come and see how, with God, you will always be held tightly.

Let’s now revisit this story. Jesus walks by and we realize he is the one we need to follow. Just as we catch up with his flowing robes, he turns to us and asks, “What are you looking for?”

Pause here and really think about your answer. What have you been looking for?

What have been our expectations of Jesus? What is it we hope to discover? Now dare to ask the question, “Where are you abiding?”

Show us, Lord, once and for all, how we can also remain in the safe and transformative care of God, so that we can face the trials of this life victoriously — and with grace.

Tell us, Lord, where you abide because we would like to abide there as well. Let us end our time together praying the words of the great old hymn, “Abide with Me.”

Abide with me, fast falls the eventide. The darkness deepens, Lord with me abide. When other helpers fail and comforts flee, help of the helpless, oh, abide with me. May it be so. In Jesus’ name, we pray. Amen.

Isaiah 49:1-7

49 Listen to me, O coastlands;
    pay attention, you peoples from far away!
The Lord called me before I was born;
    while I was in my mother's womb he named me.
    <sup>2</sup>He made my mouth like a sharp sword;
        in the shadow of his hand he hid me;
he made me a polished arrow;
    in his quiver he hid me away.
    <sup>3</sup>And he said to me, "You are my servant,
        Israel, in whom I will be glorified."
    <sup>4</sup>But I said, "I have labored in vain;
        I have spent my strength for nothing and vanity;
yet surely my cause is with the Lord
    and my reward with my God."
    <sup>5</sup>And now the Lord says,
        who formed me in the womb to be his servant,
to bring Jacob back to him,
    and that Israel might be gathered to him,
for I am honored in the sight of the Lord,
    and my God has become my strength—
    <sup>6</sup>he says,
        "It is too light a thing that you should be my servant
        to raise up the tribes of Jacob
        and to restore the survivors of Israel;
I will give you as a light to the nations,
    that my salvation may reach to the end of the earth."
    <sup>7</sup>Thus says the Lord,
        the Redeemer of Israel and his Holy One,
to one deeply despised, abhorred by the nations,
    the slave of rulers,
        "Kings shall see and stand up;
        princes, and they shall prostrate themselves,
because of the Lord, who is faithful,
    the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you."

John 1:29-42

<sup>29</sup>The next day he saw Jesus coming toward him and declared, “Here is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world! <sup>30</sup>This is he of whom I said, ‘After me comes a man who ranks ahead of me because he was before me.’ <sup>31</sup>I myself did not know him, but I came baptizing with water for this reason, that he might be revealed to Israel.” <sup>32</sup>And John testified, “I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it remained on him. <sup>33</sup>I myself did not know him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water said to me, ‘He on whom you see the Spirit descend and remain is the one who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.’ <sup>34</sup>And I myself have seen and have testified that this is the Chosen One.”<sup>[a]</sup>

<sup>35</sup>The next day John again was standing with two of his disciples, <sup>36</sup>and as he watched Jesus walk by he exclaimed, “Look, here is the Lamb of God!” <sup>37</sup>The two disciples heard him say this, and they followed Jesus. <sup>38</sup>When Jesus turned and saw them following, he said to them, “What are you looking for?” They said to him, “Rabbi” (which translated means Teacher), “where are you staying?” <sup>39</sup>He said to them, “Come and see.” They came and saw where he was staying, and they remained with him that day. It was about four o’clock in the afternoon. <sup>40</sup>One of the two who heard John speak and followed him was Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother. <sup>41</sup>He first found his brother Simon and said to him, “We have found the Messiah” (which is translated Anointed<sup>[b]</sup>). <sup>42</sup>He brought Simon<sup>[c]</sup> to Jesus, who looked at him and said, “You are Simon son of John. You are to be called Cephas”<sup>[d]</sup> (which is translated Peter<sup>[e]</sup>).
