

ROAD TO FREEDOM

Welcome to St Peter's UCC Virtual Worship

Service! Subscribe to our YouTube Channel to catch a new service at 10am each Sunday! We also share a podcast weekly of the scripture readings and sermon.

Open Holy Communion. We have communion the 1st Sunday of the month and we invite all Christians and seekers after God to partake of the Lord's Supper with us regardless of denominational background. To participate from home, please have a small cup of juice, wine, or other beverage you are comfortable with, and a piece of bread with you. When Rev. Lanford prompts us to "take and eat" (and "drink"), then we will all do so - physically separated, but together in spirit.

Who We Are. St. Peter's is an Open and Affirming congregation. We've been in the heart of downtown Skokie for over 152 years. We are a part of the United Church of Christ, which means we are passionate about our faith and open in our thinking. We believe in a Triune God who loves everyone, regardless of gender identity, orientation, race, status, or physical or mental ability, and we welcome all people to share worship, marriage, baptism, funeral, and fellowship with us.

Attendance. We would like to get to know you better, too! If you are comfortable doing so, please put your first name and last initial in the comments section under the video, and where you are watching us from!

Donations. We have several options for giving, and your donation helps support our church and its various ministries. Now more than ever, every contribution (large or small) is important to keep us going:

- Text Your Gift. Text the amount you want to donate to 844-997-2346.
- PayPal. Visit PayPal.me/stpeteruccskokie Uncheck the "Paying for Goods or Services" box to not pass on the fees to St Peters.
- Vanco Give+ App. Download the Vanco GIVE+ app from iTunes or Google Play, put in the church's zip code 60077 and select St. Peter's from the drop down. Set up an account with a password (or process as a guest), select your donation frequency, amount, and add payment info. There is also an option here to offset the processing fee.
- Mail a Check. We are collecting mail daily, and depositing regularly throughout the week.

Contact Us. You can email us – we are accessing email from home during the Shelter-in-Place order. Or call and leave a voicemail, we are picking up messages regularly while we are not in the building. Follow us on Facebook and Instagram for daily updates and messages, and check our website for additional details, weekly announcements, and more.

OUR ORDER OF WORSHIP FOR
Sunday, September 13, 2020 10:00 AM
Fifteenth Sunday after Pentecost

WELCOME GUESTS!

* Indicates all who are able are invited to stand

PRELUDE: "Let My People Go"
Traditional African-American Spiritual

THE SHARING OF ANNOUNCEMENTS Jenn Schneider

CALL TO WORSHIP

Our Call to Worship this morning is a short simple song led by our Pastor on guitar. It's straight out of the Sermon on the Mount and is called "Seek Ye First." We'll sing verse 1, then 2, then 1 again. Here are the words:

V. 1. "Seek ye first the kingdom of God / And His righteousness,

And all these things shall be added unto you / Allelu, alleluia.

2. Ask and it shall be given unto you / seek and ye shall find,

Knock and the door will be opened unto you /
Allelu, alleluia!"

*PRAYER OF INVOCATION AND CONFESSION

Majestic God, who led our spiritual ancestors with a pillar of cloud that hid them by day and protected them by night, lead us through the threatening times in which we live. Save us from the floods of our own misplaced trust, as You saved them from the waters of the sea and the weapons of their pursuers. On this day, please grant strength to those who are weak and support for all who are stumbling. Let every tongue praise You as we give account to You of our deeds.

We bow before Your judgment seat, O God. We have ranked our sisters and brothers by the faulty standards of our society to decide who is worthy of our attention. We have rejected those whom we dislike and have been harsh with those we think do not measure up. We have been quite willing to overlook our own faults as we look down on other people. O God, You have shown us a better way. Save us from the pain we inflict and help us to discover the blessing of forgiveness. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

*ASSURANCE OF PARDON

"Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us and through grace gave us eternal comfort and good hope, comfort your hearts and strengthen them in every good work and word" (2nd Thessalonians 2:16, 17).

God forgives us so we can really have eternal comfort and good hope. God does forgive us through Jesus crucified and risen; it is grace, ready to be received by trust and lived out in our own forgiveness of, and grace toward, others. Have we any reaction to this great good news?

All: (singing): "Ask and it shall be given unto you / seek, and ye shall find, Knock, and the door will be opened unto you / Allelu, alleluia."

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

September 13, 2020

Exodus 14:19-31

Road to Freedom Faith Formation Sunday

As Moses and the other escaped slaves traveling with him ran from Pharaoh, they were met with a miracle on the shores of the Red Sea. The seas parted and Moses and the people walked to freedom on dry land.

This is a favorite story to tell children. From cartoons to vacation bible school curriculums, the elders of the church like to share this with youngsters whenever they are given an opportunity.

But this is not just a story for children. It's important for people of all ages. If you are older than Sunday school age, try reading it again, and you may find its powerful message is for you, too. As you read it again, you may find that one of the joys of rediscovering Bible stories you thought you knew as a child is the opportunity to ask new questions of the old texts.

Although this is a story full of miracle and wonder, its primary message is not about the fancy special effects. Look beyond the flashy pyrotechnics and start asking questions. For example, what does it mean to people of all ages that God showed such amazing works of power on behalf of a people who had been enslaved? Perhaps the cloud by day and the fire by night - not to mention the parting of the waters - was God's way of getting our attention, of making sure that we especially notice this story above others.

And why get our attention for this story? Maybe these miracles are so surprising and dazzling because this story is one that God really wants us to notice. Why would that be? Maybe it's because the liberation of people is the primary Divine hope and joy for all of God's children. Maybe it's because God has a special preference and love for those of God's children that are captured and enslaved. Maybe it's because God wants all of us to keep working toward the day when all, not just some but ALL, are free.

Today is Faith Formation Sunday. If you haven't heard the story of Moses and the people crossing the Red Sea, listen again. In that old, old story, you may hear a new message, one that is as thrilling as those miracles you heard about in Sunday school long ago.

SCRIPTURES FOR THE CONGREGATION

September 13, 2020

Exodus 14:19 - 31

The angel of God who was going before the Israelite army moved and went behind them; and the pillar of cloud moved from in front of them and took its place behind them. It came between the army of Egypt and the army of Israel. And so the cloud was there with the darkness, and it lit up the night; one did not come near the other all night.

Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea. The LORD drove the sea back by a strong east wind all night, and turned the sea into dry land; and the waters were divided. The Israelites went into the sea on dry ground, the waters forming a wall for them on their right and on their left. The Egyptians pursued, and went into the sea after them, all of Pharaoh's horses, chariots, and chariot drivers. At the morning watch the LORD in the pillar of fire and cloud looked down upon the Egyptian army, and threw the Egyptian army into panic. He clogged their chariot wheels so that they turned with difficulty. The Egyptians said, “Let us flee from the Israelites, for the LORD is fighting for them against Egypt.”

Then the LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand over the sea, so that the water may come back upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots and chariot drivers.” <sup>7</sup>So Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and at dawn the sea returned to its normal depth. As the Egyptians fled before it, the LORD tossed the Egyptians into the sea. The waters returned and covered the chariots and the chariot drivers, the entire army of Pharaoh that had followed them into the sea; not one of them remained. But the Israelites walked on dry ground through the sea, the waters forming a wall for them on their right and on their left.

Thus the LORD saved Israel that day from the Egyptians; and Israel saw the Egyptians dead on the seashore. Israel saw the great work that the LORD did against the Egyptians. So the people feared the LORD and believed in the LORD and in his servant Moses.

The Apostle Paul writes about some of things that those who are on a journey with God should and can do. An over-arching theme of this passage is that love respects the scruples of others as long as the bottom line of faith in Christ is preserved.

Romans 14:1 - 12

Welcome those who are weak in faith, but not for the purpose of quarreling over opinions. Some believe in eating anything, while the weak eat only vegetables. Those who eat must not despise those who abstain, and those who abstain must not pass judgment on those who eat; for God has welcomed them. Who are you to pass judgment on servants of another? It is before their own lord that they stand or fall. And they will be upheld, for the Lord is able to make them stand.

Some judge one day to be better than another, while others judge all days to be alike. Let all be fully convinced in their own minds.

Those who observe the day, observe it in honor of the Lord. Also those who eat, eat in honor of the Lord, since they give thanks to God; while those who abstain, abstain in honor of the Lord and give thanks to God. We do not live to ourselves, and we do not die to ourselves. If we live, we live to the Lord, and if we die, we die to the Lord; so then, whether we live or whether we die, we are the Lord's. For to this end Christ died and lived again, so that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living.

Why do you pass judgment on your brother or sister? Or you, why do you despise your brother or sister? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of God. For it is written, "As I live, says the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall give praise to God." So then, each of us will be accountable to God.

Matthew 18:21-35

"Then Peter came and said to Jesus, 'Lord, if another member of the church sins against me, how often should I forgive? As many as seven times?' Jesus said to him, 'Not seven times, but, I tell you, seventy-seven times.'

"For this reason the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his slaves. When he began the reckoning, one who owed him ten thousand talents was brought to him; and, as he could not pay, his lord ordered him to be sold, together with his wife and children and all his possessions, and payment to be made. So the slave fell on his knees before him, saying, ‘Have patience with me, and I will pay you everything.’ And out of pity for him, the lord of that slave released him and forgave him the debt.

“But that same slave, as he went out, came upon one of his fellow slaves who owed him a hundred denarii (pron. De-NARY-eye); and, seizing him by the throat, he said, ‘Pay what you owe.’ Then his fellow slave fell down and pleaded with him, ‘Have patience with me, and I will pay you.’ But he refused; then he went and threw him into prison until he would pay the debt. When his fellow slaves saw what had happened, they were greatly distressed, and they went and reported to their lord all that had taken place.

“Then his lord summoned him and said to him, ‘You wicked slave! I forgave you all that debt because you pleaded with me. Should you not have had mercy on your fellow slave, as I had mercy on you?’ And in anger his lord handed him over to be tortured until he would pay his entire debt. So my heavenly Father will also do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother or sister from your heart.”
